

ANZAC DAY 2012

Younger Veterans' Memorial Service 9am Anglesea Barracks

Join with Tasmania's younger veteran community at 9am on ANZAC Day at the Anglesea Barracks Peacekeeping Memorial. Members with peacekeeping, war or humanitarian service with the ADF, Police, including civilians who have served overseas with Defence or the UN are very welcome, along with family and friends.

Wreaths may be laid at the beginning of the 30 minute service during which those who have died on operations in the preceding 12 months will be remembered.

Younger veterans are invited to attend the Dawn Service at the Hobart Cenotaph, join in breakfast at the Navy Club, attend the Younger Veterans' Memorial Service before participating in the main parade and service.

For further information please contact the Australian Peacekeeper and Peacemaker Veterans' Association (Tas) via Facebook or email pjpyke@bigpond.net.au