Factsheet HSV65– Medical treatment while Overseas

Purpose

This Factsheet provides information on DVA arrangements for medical treatment whilst travelling or residing overseas. It also provides information on; what arrangements you should make before going overseas, how to seek a refund for eligible treatment received overseas and what happens if you cannot pay for your treatment whilst overseas.

Will DVA pay for medical treatment while I am overseas?

While you are overseas you will be eligible for treatment at DVA expense for your accepted disabilities only. The treatment needs to be the same as, or similar to, treatment and cost considered appropriate in Australia. If you are unsure of your accepted disabilities, please contact DVA on the phone numbers listed under More Information at the end of this Factsheet.

Can I still use my Gold or White Card when I am overseas?

No, your Gold or White Card can only be used within Australia. These cards are not accepted by health providers outside Australia.

Will DVA pay for my overseas vaccinations before I travel overseas?

DVA will pay for overseas travel vaccinations provided within Australia for Gold Card holders from 1 August 2010. It is important that you discuss your overseas travel plans with an approved medical practitioner to find out if any vaccinations are required prior to travelling overseas.

Do I need overseas travel insurance?

While you are overseas DVA can only fund medical treatment for accepted disabilities. It is important that you consider taking out travel insurance for treatment of any non service related conditions should the need arise whilst you are overseas.

Do I need to notify DVA before I go overseas?

Yes, you need to notify DVA of your intention to travel overseas before you leave so the Department can advise you of the arrangements for receiving medical treatment at DVA expense. If you do not notify DVA, you may not be aware of the treatment expenses that can be refunded and payment for any treatment while you are overseas cannot be guaranteed. For more information about travelling overseas, please see Factsheet IS77 Travelling or Living Overseas.

What information will I receive from DVA?

Once you notify DVA of your intention to travel overseas you will be provided with information relating to:

- your entitlement to treatment while overseas;
- DVA's prior financial authorisation requirements and limits that apply to some services;
- DVA's treatment agreements with overseas governments;
- procedures for claiming a refund of treatment expenses; and
- direct contact details for the DVA officers who will be your point of contact whilst overseas.

What treatment expenses can be refunded by DVA?

Veterans are entitled to treatment of accepted disabilities, the same as, or similar to, treatment and cost that would be considered appropriate in Australia.

What type of treatment expenses are not refunded by DVA?

DVA does not refund expenses incurred for:

- health care services that are not generally funded for eligible veterans in Australia (e.g. cosmetic surgery, acupuncturist services, herbal treatments, iridology, etc);
- treatment where a significant reason for overseas travel was/is to obtain treatment; or
- travelling expenses outside Australia or to return to Australia to obtain treatment.

What happens if I cannot pay for my treatment while overseas?

If you cannot pay for treatment of an accepted disability whilst overseas contact the Australian High Commission, Embassy or Consulate in that country. Australian officials can contact DVA to arrange payment.

Who else should I contact before going overseas?

Contact the Department of Human Services to find out about the health care arrangements that are available to all Australians in other countries. The website is:

<http://www.humanservices.gov.au/>

What information must I provide to DVA to be refunded for treatment overseas?

Once you have received and paid for your treatment, submit the original account(s) and receipt(s) to DVA as well as a signed:

- D1181 Application for Refund or Payment of Medical Expenses Privately Incurred form; or
- letter requesting a refund of your treatment expenses.

For more information please see Factsheet HSV64 Medical Expenses Privately Incurred.
