- (a) The Chair may at any time during the course of the meeting:
 - (i) adjourn the meeting or any business, motion, question or resolution being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting or any debate or discussion and may adjourn any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting; and
 - (ii) for the purpose of allowing any poll to be taken or determined, suspend the proceedings of the meeting for any period or periods he or she decides without effecting an adjournment. No business may be transacted and no discussion may take place during any suspension of proceedings unless the chair otherwise allows.
- (b) Where the Chair considers that:
 - (i) there is not enough room for the number of members who wish to attend the meeting; or
 - (ii) a postponement is necessary in light of behaviour of persons present or for any other reason so that the business of the meeting can be properly carried out, the Chair may postpone the meeting before it has started, whether or not a quorum is present.

- (c) A postponement under rule 9.8(b) is to another time, which may be on the same day as the meeting, and may be to another place (and the new time and place is taken to be the time and place for the meeting as if specified in the notice which called the meeting originally).
- (d) If the Chair exercises a right of adjournment and postponement of a meeting under this rule, the Chair has the sole discretion to decide whether to seek the approval of the Members Present to the adjournment and, unless the Chair exercises that discretion, no vote may be taken by the Members Present in respect of the adjournment.
- (e) No business may be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment or postponement took place.
- (f) Where a meeting is postponed or adjourned under rule 9.7, notice of the adjourned or postponed meeting must be given to the members.

9.9 Voting

- (a) Each question submitted to a general meeting must be decided by a show of hands of the Members Present and entitled to vote. Subject to rule 9.9(b) in the case of an equality of votes, the Chair has, both on a show of hands and at a poll, a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which the Chair may be entitled as a Member or as a proxy, attorney or, if applicable, a duly appointed corporate representative of a Member.
- (b) On a show of hands, where the Chair has two or more appointments that specify different ways to vote on a resolution, the Chair must not vote as a proxy but has a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes cast by Members entitled to vote at the meeting.

9.10 Declaration of vote on a show of hands – when poll demanded

- (a) At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has been passed or lost, having regard to the majority required, and an entry to that effect in the book to be kept of the proceedings of the Company signed by the Chair of that or the next succeeding meeting, is conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (b) A poll may be demanded:
 - (i) before a vote is taken;
 - (ii) before the voting results on a show of hands are declared; or
 - (iii) immediately after the voting results on a show of hands are declared.
- (c) A poll may be demanded by the Chair only.
- (d) No poll may be demanded on the election of a Chair of a meeting.

9.11 Taking a poll

- (a) If a poll is demanded under rule 9.10, it must be taken in the manner and at the time and place the Chair directs, and the result of the poll is deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (b) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (c) In the case of any dispute about the admission or rejection of a vote, the Chair's decision is final.

9.12 Continuation of business

A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. A poll demanded on any question of adjournment is to be taken at the meeting immediately and without adjournment.

9.13 Special meetings

Rules about general meetings apply to any special meeting of any class of Members held under this document or the Corporations Legislation.

- (a) The Board may issue with any notice of general meeting of Members or any class of Members, forms of proxy for use by the Members.
